The Pusser's Story

After launching Pusser's Rum commercially in 1979—named for the Royal Navy "Pusser" or ship's purser who issued the daily rum ration—the first Pusser's Landing restaurant opened in Soper's Hole, Tortola. What began in the British Virgin Islands as a popular destination for sailors and tourists eventually made its way to the states, and after 30 years of food, fun and family on the Annapolis Harbor, we've landed here at Lighthouse Point Marina.
